

Information about corridor contact in Smålands Nations Accomodation (SNB)

Smålands Nations Bostäder would like all tenants to feel comfortable and satisfied with their residence. In order to provide good service it is important to us to keep an open dialog with all of our residence. Therefore we would like to present our initiative to establish a corridor contact. The corridor contact is an important part of creating a pleasant housing environment for all tenants. We hope you would contribute in appointing a corridor foreman in the corridor you live in.

Corridor contact

Corridor contacts are selected among our tenants and is someone living on the corridor that has a little more responsibility for the common areas.

The corridor contact will meet the caretaker regularly to assist with information about maintenance and upkeep of the common areas, to help integrate newly arrived tenants into the established routines.

Corridor contacts responsibility

Spread information from SNB to residents in the corridor.

Carry out current point of views from the residents to the caretaker.

Contribute in establishing cleaning routines.

Help newly arrived tenants to integrate into the established cleaning.

Make sure no objects that can prevent evacuation are stored in the corridor.

Report errors in the common areas on HSB website.

Attend corridor contact meeting 1-2 times per term.

Corridor contract advantages

Compensation of SEK 990 per year for the assignment (rental deduction for 10 months, September - June).

Alternatively, the amount can be paid in cash to a corridor cashier and used as the corridor itself determines for the common well-being.

A service certificate.

Opportunity to use SNB as a referee when applying for future employment.

Requirements to become a corridor contact

You are a tenant of SNB and have preferably stayed in the corridor for at least one semester.

You meet the SNB's study requirements solely the lease.

You are sociable and feel a responsibility for the well-being of the corridor.
